

Section 16 - Trauma

Additional Resources

Title, Date & Author	Brief Synopsis	Additional Notes
Murray, B. K. (2020). The Pandemic of Adverse Childhood Experiences: Courts and the Health of Idaho Citizens. Retrieved November 13, 2020, from https://isb.idaho.gov/blog/the-pandemic-of-adverse-childhood-experiences-courts-and-the-health-of-idaho-citizens/	This article, written by the Honorable Bryan K. Murray, Magistrate Judge in Idaho, outlines what Adverse Childhood Experiences are and how trauma-informed courts can help children and other individuals entering a courtroom. The three-page resource summarizes what it means to look at a child through a trauma-informed lens.	To retrieve the article, use the link below: https://ocfcpacourts.us/wp-content/uploads/2021/09/1.-The-Pandemic-of-Adverse-Childhood-Experiences.-new.pdf
The Supreme Court of Ohio (2017). Juvenile Court Trauma-Informed Practices: Considering Trauma in Children. Retrieved November 13, 2020, from https://www.supremecourt.ohio.gov/JCS/CFC/resources/traumaInformedCourt.pdf	This resource is a four-page document for judges and hearing officers who want to implement trauma-informed practices in their courtroom. It provides definitions of exposure and the effects when considering out-of-home placements for children in a quick checklist format. The resource provides strategies for courtroom practices and areas to consider for parents who may have trauma histories. The resource also highlights strategies that may foster resilience related to Adverse Childhood Experiences (ACEs).	To retrieve the article, use the link below: https://ocfcpacourts.us/wp-content/uploads/2021/11/2.-Juvenile-Court-Trauma-Informed-Court-2020-October-meeting-2.pdf
Tepper, L. (2020). Trauma-Informed Justice. From Seeing Individuals Through a Trauma Lens: Getting from ACEs to Trauma-Informed Justice, presented by Circuit Judge Lynn Tepper of the Sixth Judicial	This resource, developed for Florida's judiciary, aims to assist judges in making judicial decisions that improve outcomes for children with a focus on how trauma can impact developmental milestones.	To retrieve the article, use the link below: https://ocfcpacourts.us/wp-content/uploads/2021/11/3.-Trauma-Informed-Justice.-

Section 16 - Trauma

Additional Resources

Title, Date & Author	Brief Synopsis	Additional Notes
Circuit on March 30, 2016. PowerPoint, Seeing Individuals Through a Trauma Lens: Getting from ACEs to Trauma-Informed Justice. For the Family Court Tool Kit on Trauma and Child Development Family Court Tool Kit: Trauma and Child Development - Florida Courts (flcourts.org) Retrieved November 13, 2020, from https://www.flcourts.org/content/download/634473/file/Trauma%20Informed%20Justice%202020.pdf		From-Seeing-Individuals-Through-a-Trauma-Lens.-new.pdf

