The paper was developed for the Pennsylvania State Roundtable and examines the practices of Family Group Conferencing, Family Team Meetings, and Team Decision Making. It includes an extensive bibliography. The author ultimately concludes with a recommendation for a two-tiered system which includes a strategy that allows a strong family voice into immediate and ongoing decisions about child safety, well-being, and permanence. It is the foundational document that led to the development	Although long, this document provides important information regarding the history of Pennsylvania's family engagement strategy development for both child welfare agencies and courts. It also provides an excellent foundation for the State Roundtable's Family Engagement Initiative (FEI).
